Equal Rights for Men and Women. July 14, 1971. -- Referred to the House Calendar and Ordered to be Printed 1971

Invisible Women 2019-03-12 the world needs real men real bad and there are all sorts of conflicting ideas and messages about what a real man is and is not is a real man one who hunts loves sports grills meat fixes cars and climbs mountains sure sometimes but that s not really the point of being a man and it s not the purpose for which men were made into our cultural confusion brant hansen paints a refreshingly specific compelling picture of what men are made to be keepers of the garden protectors and defenders he calls for men of all interests and backgrounds including avid indoorsmen like himself to be ambitious about the right things and to see themselves as defenders of the vulnerable with whatever resources they have using short chapters loaded with must have wisdom and brant s signature humor the men we need explains the essence of masculinity in a fresh thoughtful and entertaining way that will inspire any man who dares to read it

The End of Men 2012-09-11 essential reading for our times as women are pulling together to demand their rights a landmark portrait of women men and power in a transformed world anchored by data and aromatized by anecdotes rosin concludes that women are gaining the upper hand the washington post men have been the dominant sex since well the dawn of mankind but hanna rosin was the first to notice that this long held truth is astonishingly no longer true today by almost every measure women are no longer gaining on men they have pulled decisively ahead and the end of men the title of rosin s atlantic cover story on the subject has entered the lexicon as dramatically as betty friedan s feminine mystique simone de beauvoir s second sex susan faludi s backlash and naomi wolf s beauty myth once did in this landmark book rosin reveals how our current state of affairs is radically shifting the power dynamics between men and women at every level of society with profound implications for marriage sex children work and more with wide ranging curiosity and insight unhampered by assumptions or ideology rosin shows how the radically different ways men and women today earn learn spend couple up even kill has turned the big picture upside down and in the end of men she helps us see how regardless of gender we can adapt to the new reality and channel it for a better future

Coming Out of Homosexuality 1995 1 international bestseller winner of the 2019 financial times and mckinsey business book of the year award winner of the 2019 royal society science book prize a landmark prize winning international bestselling examination of how a gender gap in data perpetuates bias and disadvantages women now in paperback data is fundamental to the modern world from economic development to health care to education and public policy we rely on numbers to allocate resources and make crucial decisions but because so much data fails to take into account gender because it treats men as the default and women as atypical bias and discrimination are baked into our systems and women pay tremendous costs for this insidious bias in time in money and often with their lives celebrated feminist advocate caroline criado perez investigates this shocking root cause of gender inequality in the award winning 1 international bestseller invisible women examining the home the workplace the public square the doctor s office and more criado perez unearths a dangerous pattern in data and its consequences on women s lives product designers use a one size fits all approach to everything from pianos to cell phones to voice recognition software when in fact this approach is designed to fit men cities prioritize men s needs when designing public transportation roads and even snow removal neglecting to consider women s safety or unique responsibilities and travel patterns and in medical research women have largely been excluded from studies and textbooks leaving them chronically misunderstood mistreated and misdiagnosed built on hundreds of studies in the united states in the united kingdom and around the world and written with energy wit and sparkling intelligence this is a groundbreaking highly readable exposé that will change the way you look at the world

Men & Grief 1991 in the examination of gender as a driving force in disasters too little attention has been paid to how women s or men s disaster experiences relate to the wider context of gender inequality or how gender just practice can help prevent disasters or address climate change at a structural level with a foreword from kenneth hewitt an afterword from raewyn connell and contributions from renowned international experts this book helps address the gap it explores disasters in diverse environmental hazard political and cultural contexts through original research and theoretical reflection building on the under utilized orientation of critical men s studies this body of thought not previously applied in disaster contexts explores how men gain maintain and use power to assert control over women contributing authors examine the gender terrain of disasters through men s eyes considering how diverse forms of masculinities shape men s efforts to respond to and recover from disasters and other climate challenges the book highlights both the high costs paid by many men in disasters and the consequences of dominant masculinity practices for women and marginalized men it concludes by examining how disaster risk can be reduced through men's diverse efforts to challenge hierarchies around gender sexuality disability age and culture

Made in 1949 2020-01-28 as seen on the cover of new york magazine america's longest running advice columnist goes on the road to speak to women about hideous men and whether we need them carroll's lively prose careens in constant pursuit of pleasure indefatigably funny and full of life lindsay zoladz the ringer darkly humorous and deadly serious sabbie o sullivan washington post a compulsively interesting feminist memoir virginia heffernan slate somehow hilarious in the way that only e jean could have written it leigh haber oprah magazine roving curious compassionate whimsical megan garber the atlantic when e jean carroll possibly the liveliest woman in the world and author of the ask e jean advice column in elle magazine realized that her eight million readers and question writers all seemed to have one thing in common problems caused by men she hit the road crisscrossing the country with her blue haired poodle lewis carroll e jean stopped in every town named after a woman between eden vermont and tallulah louisiana to ask women the crucial question what do we need men for e jean gave her rollicking road trip a sly stylish turn when she deepened the story creating a list called the most hideous men of my life and began to reflect on her own sometimes very dark history with the opposite sex what advice would she have given to her past selves as miss cheerleader usa and miss indiana university or as the fearless journalist television host and eventual advice columnist she became e jean intertwines the stories of the fascinating people she meets on her road trip with her horrible history with the male sex including mafia bosses media titans boyfriends husbands a serial killer and a president creating a decidedly dark yet hopeful hilarious and thrilling narrative her answer to the question what do we need men for will shock men and delight women
