ingrid yung s life is full of firsts a first generation chinese american the first lawyer in her family she s about to collect the holy grail of firsts and become the first minority woman to make partner at the venerable old wall street law firm parsons valentine hunt ingrid has perfected the art of passing and seamlessly blends into the old boy corporate culture she gamely banter in the corporate cafeteria plays in the firm softball league and earnestly racks up her billable hours but when an offensive incident at the summer outing threatens the firm s reputation ingrid s outsider status is suddenly thrown into sharp relief scrambling to do damage control parsons valentine announces a new diversity and inclusion initiative commanding ingrid to spearhead the effort only she s about to close an enormous transaction that was to be her final step in securing partnership for the first time ingrid must question her place in the firm pitted against her colleagues including her golden boy boyfriend ingrid begins to wonder whether the prestige of partnership is worth breaching her ethics but in the partner track by helen wan can ingrid risk throwing away the american dream that is finally within her reach for many communities health research exists on a backdrop of distrust of research institutions decades of harmful experiences across many types of health research have contributed including studies of genetics infectious diseases therapeutic drug trials social behavioral phenomena and environmental exposures such as unconsented exposure to radiation in alaska native communities in addition to historical harms ongoing policies and norms signal disrespect and untrustworthiness to communities that might otherwise be interested in research distrust born out of this harm has led to a lack of participation in health research which threatens to deny these communities potential benefits from large public research investments and to increase existing disparities in health and health care however research is often recognized as potentially beneficial to communities and many communities would like to participate on their own terms novel approaches to research with communities have developed in recent decades founded on the idea that the affected or studied community should be an equal partner in the research community academic partnerships taking approaches such as community based participatory research cbpr have become increasingly prevalent and funding for large clinical research programs such as the patient centered outcomes research institute pcori have stipulated that grantees have community co investigators in their studies throughout the community academic research partnership literature building trust is seen as essential to meeting partnership goals and to upholding cbpr principles given the checkered institutional history academic researchers hold a responsibility to cultivate their own trustworthiness with regard to communities in order to build trust and start to overcome these barriers few partnerships have described how they have built or evaluated trust and even fewer have described researcher trustworthiness in their partnerships i employed a mixed methods approach to address three key aims 1a to characterize trustworthiness within community academic research partnerships and b to identify institutional barriers to trustworthiness encountered by such partnerships and approaches taken to overcome those barriers 2 to develop a measure of researcher trustworthiness in community academic research partnerships and 3 to identify opportunities to cultivate trustworthiness within a case of genetic research apol1 testing for end stage renal disease risk in african american communities tactics for small business owners to incorporate on their own and reap big rewards tips traps when incorporating your business is for millions of small business owners who want to incorporate their businesses but are intimidated by the legal complexities and fees associated with the process the authors clearly describe the types of corporations and explain the legal and tax advantages of each then following the acclaimed tips traps format they walk readers step by step through the process from picking a name to filing paperwork issuing shares and running shareholder meetings supply samples of all the necessary forms agreements and other documents provide checklists covering legal financial and tax related aspects of incorporating explain the different types of corporations and their key characteristics including owner liability tax treatment documents needed and management styles explore the right locations to incorporate a particular business and how to raise capital for that corporation registered investment advisers are accustomed to regulatory scrutiny but the pressure to understand changing compliance regulations and to meet the requirements they impose has never been more intense a range of scandals and abuses from the laundering of terrorist funds to mutual fund trading shenanigans has caused the securities and exchange commission to tighten regulation and step up enforcement unfortunately definitive compliance information the kind that can save advisers precious time and spare them serious trouble has not been easy to find until now the ria s compliance solution book gathers the information needed most and puts it all in one place here advisers will find plain english translations of the rules that regulate such issues as advisory contracts and fees advertising and client communications ria compliance programs and codes of ethics custody of customer accounts completing filing and amending form adv selecting brokers and executing trades from bestselling author bob glazer comes a revolutionary approach to partnership marketing partnership marketing is not new it has existed in many different forms and under many different names such as affiliate marketing for decades however thanks to transformative changes in enabling technology and pricing models as well as a change in both supply and demand partnership marketing now exists in a more automated scalable form that few companies have fully leveraged to date moving to outcomes will unlock the keys and show readers how to do so for themselves think about your marketing strategy as you would consider an investment portfolio every investment guru advises diversifying your stock market assets to protect against declines in some types of assets additionally if you want better returns you need to adjust your holdings through diversification and get outside of the traditional asset classes once an asset class reaches maturity and ubiquity you are much less likely to see above average returns investors can't beat the market by investing in the biggest names of today instead they need to find the next microsoft amazon or tesla marketers today have a choice they can
